

A three-story brick house with a dark brown facade and a decorative cornice. The house features five windows: three on the second floor and two on the first floor, all with white frames and decorative lintels. A central front door with a small transom window is reached by a set of wooden steps. A red sign is posted on the steps.

A blue SUV parked on the left side of the street, facing right. The vehicle has a silver roof rack and is parked on the asphalt.

A black pickup truck parked on the right side of the street, facing left. The truck is parked on the asphalt.

A green fire hydrant with the number '6' on its top, located on the sidewalk in the foreground on the right.
